"There is a remarkable call for fine

coach-horses. We can't supply one-quarter of the demand. Down in Maine they are beginning to breed horses again that were in fashion twenty-five years ago. Maine horses causes them to move their shoulders more freely than those raised in warmer climates. This makes their chests of the injured eye must have been broader and their muscles stronger and more flexible, and imparts great knee action.'

"What stock are they bred from?" The old Morgan cross, Knox, F.youghbred stock. This makes a more symmetrical and finer type."

Mr. Bishop, in answer to an inquiry, "has made crosses on different forms. He has crossed thoroughbreds with large Norman mares. He is now crossing thoroughbred mares with a horse named Howe's Bismarck, a son of General Koox. I believe that in four or five years he will show us finer achers than have ever been seen in try. those in Europe?' "The sight in the park on a fine day for driving is superior to any I ever saw in any European city. Our Coaching Club's parade will compare more than favorably with the English, so far as the horses are concerned. If this were not so European buyers would not be here after them. youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured. It checks falling of the bair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladice' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume. MR. C. P. BRICHER Writes from Kirby, O.

hity 3, 1882: "Last fail my heir commenced failing out, and in a short time I became nearly baid. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIOOR, which stopped the failing of the hair, and started a new growth. have now a full head of hair growing vigor-ously, and am convinced that but for the use of your proparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AVER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction." MR. ANGUS FAIRMAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1839. "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used Aven's Hair Vigor, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public." MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm Mr. Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says:
"Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one battle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER was the first proparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first suc-cessful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and seals. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and uncfulness. to every quarter of the globe. Its The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote counrice, where they had never made an effort for

The use for a short time of HALL's HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the per-onal appearance. It cleaness the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not growth.
